Let's think about it

Talk about these together, or write your answers on a separate page.

1. Why did Lennie live inside the house with Farmer Tash?
2. How did Lennie feel when he was put in the paddock? How do you know?
3. What did Lennie think of the other animals at first? Was he right?
4. How did Luna help Lennie? What did she say to him?
5. Think of something new that felt scary at first but turned out fine. What happened?
6. Luna was kind to Lennie when he was new. How could you help someone who is new?

Did you know? A lamb that is born much smaller and weaker than the others is sometimes called a runt. The farmer may bring a runt lamb inside to keep it warm and feed it milk from a bottle, just like Farmer Tash did with Lennie. Once the lamb is strong and eating grass, it can go back outside to live with the flock.

Answers for grown-ups. Fill in the blanks: 1 weak, 2 cosy, 3 tight, 4 goat, 5 sheep. Choose the right answer: 1 Grass, 2 Luna the lamb, 3 Peek-a-boo, 4 Run and leap, 5 The alpaca.
